How to use Override to give extra time to special need students in quiz?

1. Login to your course, then double click the quiz, Click More tab, then choose overrides
2. Click the link, then click Add user override button
3. Click the Search in the search area, then choose the student name. You will be able to choose one or more users and change quiz dates, times or number of attempts. Click Save.	