

How to use Lucidspark Whiteboard in Google meet?

1. Go to google market space to download an add-on app called Lucidspark
<https://workspace.google.com/marketplace/app/lucidspark/447378736656>

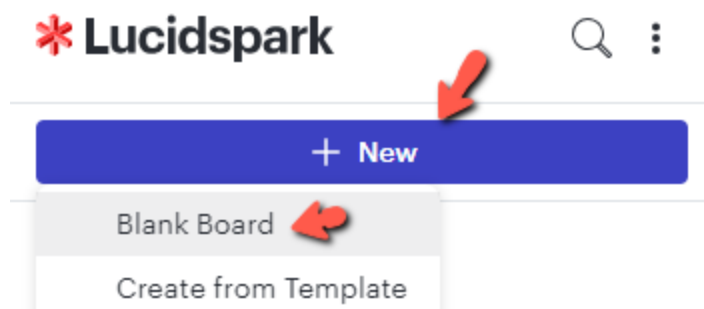

Click install button to install it to your computer, it will ask you to use your Eckerd account, just click allow to finish the installation.

2. Start your google meet, then click Add an activity icon in meet. You should be able to see Lucidspark app

3. Click Lucidspark to start a new whiteboard to create one

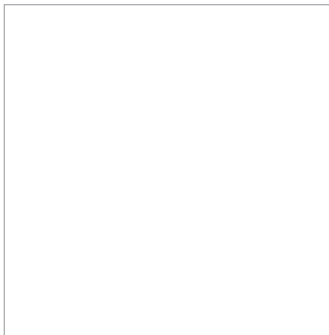

Enter the name for your new board:

Go Back

Create board

- 4. Click Attach board for your meet participants

Attach "Blank Board"

Share Settings

 Any Lucid users ▼

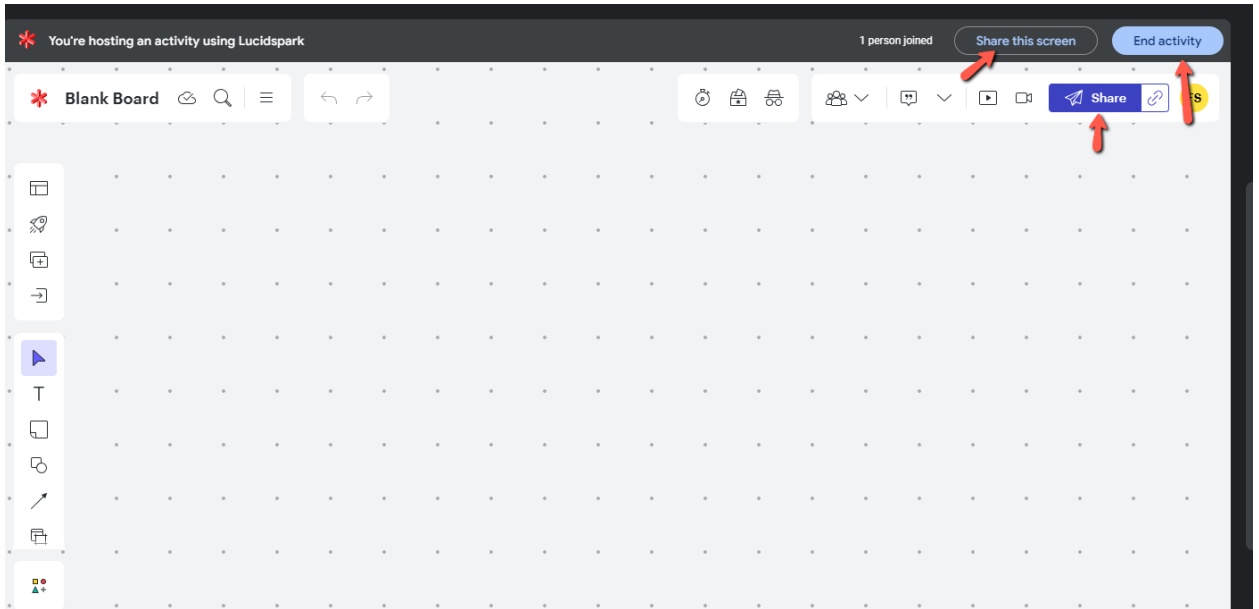

Edit and share ▼

Attach board

Back

Please note: Shared hardware device users may experience access issues when joining

- 5. Click Share this screen to your students

6. Click moor tool on the left side board to choose different tools for it such as shape, text, pen drawing etc.. If you are done with board, you click end activity to go back to Meet.

